

CHASE KREGER

ENTREPRENEUR | SPEAKER | AUTHOR | SERVANT

CHASE'S BACKGROUND

While playing D-1 soccer at the University of Louisville, Chase's fascination with creating winning leaders was born. He discovered he had a special knack for leading, selling, and public speaking while getting his undergraduate degrees and competing for one of the best programs in the nation. After undergrad, he returned to graduate school to earn his MBA and Chase Kreger's undeniable obsession with sales and leadership was ignited in the process.

Motivated by a dream to help millions of people and supercharged with enough energy to fuel a rocket ship to the moon, Chase was determined to use his expertise to help leaders lead and sellers sell. After five years of full time service in the Corporate Training world, Chase and his wife Suzanne launched Maximize Value Consulting. Since 2016, their growing team has been able to transform the lives of tens of thousands of leaders and sales professionals all over the world.

Today, Chase and Suzanne have four adorable little kids who will eventually take over the company and carry it to places they never could. He just hopes they keep him around as their unpaid assistant to witness it all first-hand.
